

Information for visitors

Food and Drink

Blend at Contemporary is our in-house cafe, which will be open throughout the events.

You can find Blend at Contemporary on the bottom floor of our building - accessible by stairs or lift.

Our cafe can get busy during events and weekends, and we anticipate it may be so during the lunch break.

Other local lunch places we can recommend are:

Pizzamisú

Neapolitan-style pizzas, Italian beers & desserts.

9 High Pavement, Nottingham NG1 1HF

A 1 minute walk from Nottingham Contemporary

Coco Tang

Vietnamese cafe and bakery, serving speciality coffee. Outdoor seating and dog-friendly.

8 Byard Ln, Nottingham NG1 2GJ

A 2 minute walk from Nottingham Contemporary

Cartwheel Cafe

Relaxed cafe and coffee roastery, serving locally-sourced produce and a large lunch and breakfast menu. Take-away options are also available.

16 Low Pavement, Nottingham NG1 7DL
A 2 minute walk from Nottingham Contemporary

Delilah Fine Foods

Award-winning Nottingham deli, cafe, and wine bar, serving breakfast, lunch, and speciality hot drinks. Outdoor seating and take-away options available.

12 Victoria St, Nottingham NG1 2EX
A 4 minute walk from Nottingham Contemporary

200 Degrees

Independent coffee shop and coffee roasters, serving sandwiches, salads and soups as well as cakes and pastries.

16 Flying Horse Walk, Nottingham NG1 2HN
A 5 minute walk from Nottingham Contemporary

The Hockley & Lace Market area of the City has lots of cafés, restaurants, bars, and pubs, and is just a few minutes' walk away from the gallery. Head towards Carlton Street / Goosegate.

Some of our favourites are:

- Koyal: Authentic Keralan seafood specialities and traditional street snacks.
- Pho: Healthy Vietnamese street food with gluten-free and vegan options.
- Bar Iberico: Classic & vegan Spanish tapas, flatbreads, breakfast eats & cocktails.

- The Angel Brewery: Character pub and microbrewery serving great pub food with plenty of veggie options.
- Sexy Mamma Love Spaghetti: Cosy, atmospheric restaurant serving traditional Italian dishes.
- Hockley Arts Club: Large creative space for social eating and drinking, open late for cocktails and dancing at weekends.
- 31k: Mellow bar in a former tool shop fixing up build-your-own meatball bowls & classic cocktails

Getting Here

Nottingham Contemporary's large green and gold coloured building sits on the corner of Weekday Cross in the Lace Market area of Nottingham city. Our postcode is NG1 2GB. The nearest tram stop is Lace Market and we are a few minutes on foot from Fletcher Gate which serves several bus routes around the city and county.

Nottingham Train Station is 0.3 miles away / approximately 7 minutes on foot.

Safety During Your Visit

Please do not attend this event if you/someone in your household is currently COVID-19 positive, has suspected symptoms or is awaiting test results.

Galleries

If you are planning on seeing our current exhibition Hollow Earth: Art, Caves & The Subterranean Imaginary as part of your visit, our galleries are open at the following times:

Mon Closed

Tue – Sat 10am–6pm

Sun 11am–5pm

Free entry.

Access Requirements

We have an accessible building with lift access on all floors. We have two toilets for functional diversity on the lowest floor, including a gender neutral and Changing Places toilet.

Portable fold-up stools are available for you to take around our galleries. We can also provide a wheelchair for you to borrow. Please ask at reception for more details.

Large-print versions of exhibition information panels are available in the galleries, and we can provide other information in large print on request. We welcome guide- and hearing-dogs throughout the building.

Hearing loops are available at reception and in our auditorium. Please contact a member of staff for further information.

Our lockers can store most large bags or buggies.

If you have any specific access requirements, please contact us at info@nottinghamcontemporary.org or 01159489750.

For more information see our website

Our full building access statement is available here