A young child with blonde hair is sticking their tongue out and holding several colorful plastic balls (red, yellow, green) in their hands. The child is wearing a dark blue zip-up top with a white collar and a silver star zipper pull. The background is a bright, yellow, out-of-focus setting.

I'm going to tell you a story...

using things I found at home

Schools of Tomorrow 2019–23

Nottingham Contemporary and Melbury Primary School Nursery

Mr Rod was Angry because he wasn't invited to Mr Yellow's birthday party.
There was something about the cake and “Look what I found!”

“What could they become?”

“What stories could we tell?”

“I can make a story from anything”

“She says ‘Will you be my friend?’”

“Yes, I’ll be your friend...
Hugs!”

“Ooh...Bright and shiny!” ...

“It’s prickly!”

“An Upside Down Hedgehog!”

“Is it a Mouse?”

“Or a Creepy Crawly!”

“Let’s take it for a walk...”

“Once there was a beautiful garden...”

“A Caterpillar ate all the flowers...”

“Just one flower left!”

What happened next?

“What’s this?”

“It’s wiggling like a Snake in my hands”

“I’m a Princess fighting a Snake!”

“I’m coming to get you!”

“What’s that?”

“She’s a Princess in a big dress”

“Look out Princess!”

The Ssssssnake sssssslithers away into the foresssst

Back in your box Snakee...

A young girl with dark hair is looking upwards with a curious expression. She is holding a spatula that has been shaped into the form of a crocodile. The background is a light pink wall with some faint, hand-drawn scribbles. The entire image has a soft, pinkish-purple tint.

“Look!

A Crocodile

waking up...”

“Where’s my breakfast?!”

“A little Bird sits on the Crocodile’s nose”

“A Butterfly goes past”

“Follow me Bird’, says the Butterfly.
They fly away.”

“But I want my breakfast!
Roaaar!!!”

“I’m full up now”, says the Crocodile.
“Time for sleep”...

“Our mouths tell stories...

let’s get them moving...”

“bleh,

bleh,

Bleh!”

“Aaaaah!”

“Mmmmmm!”

“Eeeee!”

“Ssssssss!”

“O!”

“Meeeeeow!”

There was a Cat...”

“I can use my hands to tell a story...”

“A Horse...”

“A Dragon?!...”

“A Snail?...”

“A Bird? Bat?...”

“A Butterfly?...”

“I feel Sick”

“Sad”

“Angry!”

“Happy”

“What are the feelings in my story?”

“I can use anything to show my feelings”

“Let’s tell some more stories...”

“What’s this?

A Hat? A Flower?

A Rain Cloud?

A Thunderstorm?”

“I’m a Pirate!”

“Do you like my Pirate Wig?”

“There was thunder and lightning...
I fell in the sea...”

“My Wig floated away...”

“An Octopus saved me from a Shark”

“...and swam away”

“Back on my Boat... what can I see?”

“What’s this?”

“A Rocket to the Moon?”

“A Giraffe reaching for leaves...”

a Flower?... or a lonely Firework?”

“You’re a Firework too!”

“Let’s Woosh together!”

“What happens next?”

Acknowledgements:

This book was created for Schools of Tomorrow by Peter Rumney (Associate Artist, Learning Team, Nottingham Contemporary) and Sarah Davie (Head of Early Years, Melbury Primary School and Nursery, Bilborough Nottingham).

Our thanks to the Early Years staff, children and parents of Melbury Primary School; Lisa Jacques, Amanda Spruyt, Sandra Austerfield and the Learning Team at Nottingham Contemporary.

Photography by Catherine Masters, Peter Rumney and Morgan Stockton.

Book design by Peter Duffy.

Schools of Tomorrow at Nottingham Contemporary is a Paul Hamlyn Foundation programme

Contributors

Nottingham Contemporary

Funders

Supported using public funding by ARTS COUNCIL ENGLAND

Nottingham
City Council