CA
MPU
S

CRITICAL
PEDAGOGIES

Weekday Cross
Nottingham NG1 2GB
United Kingdom

+44 (0) 115 948 9750
info@nottinghamcontemporary.org

Application

Only applications received by email will be accepted. Applications should be sent via email to info@nottinghamcontemporary.org with 'CAMPUS 2019-2020 Application' in the subject heading, providing the following documentation in a single PDF:

Application form (PDF)
Statement with 'Why are you applying?', and brief overview of how your research and/or practice relates to CAMPUS programme (500-1000 words)
Curriculum vitae
Portfolio (if applicable)

Callout January 28
Application Deadline March 31
Shortlisted announcement April 15
Registration April 22 – May 31
Admission Deadline May 31

Scholarships

CAMPUS is free to attend. Applicants are expected to cover their individual boarding and lodging costs during the monthly gatherings. Nottingham Contemporary will provide letters of invitation and support to apply for funding and grants.

Selection Criteria and Committee

Participants are selected via open call. The selection panel are Elvira Dyangani Ose (The Showroom, London); Tom Godfrey (Bonington Gallery, Nottingham); Sofia Lemos (Nottingham Contemporary); Carolina Rito (Nottingham Contemporary); Niki Russel (Primary, Nottingham); Sam Thorne (Nottingham Contemporary).

CA MPU S

CRITICAL
PEDAGOGIES

Weekday Cross
Nottingham NG1 2GB
United Kingdom

+44 (0) 115 948 9750
info@nottinghamcontemporary.org

The selection panel will assess the prospective participants taking into account:

· Commitment to CAMPUS year-long programme;
· Practice (either artistic, activism, research-oriented);
· Relevance of the experience and activities of the applicants, whether professional or academic, to the contents of the programme;
· Recognised need to access free and non-conventional education;
· Willingness to work collaboratively and self-motivated;

We welcome applicants from all ages, interest areas, backgrounds and sections of the community, both with and without formal training. If considered necessary, an interview will be conducted (in person or online).

Contact information

Carolina Rito, Head of Public Programmes and Research

Nottingham Contemporary

Weekday Cross, Nottingham NG1 2GB

Tel.: +44 115 9489 786